BAUERSOCK AGAIN MATCHED WITH MADISON

Pair Will Meet at Schofield Barracks Jan. 10 Under the Same Conditions That Governed Last Meeting—Fighters Get Big Cut

Eddie Madison and Clarence Bauersock have been matched for still another fight. They will meet for the fourth time January 10, and unless one or the other wins decisively, local fight fans will give them up in despair, or take them to Palmyra Island and stage a finish fight.

This time the soldier and the San Franciscoan will trade punches at Schofield Barracks, for so keen are the soldiers to see the cavalryman get another chance at Madison that when Dick Sullivan turned down the proposition of matching them again, the post authorities were prevailed on to lower the bars for once, and allow a civilian to box there. The affair will take place in the new Second Infantry amusement hall, and will be preceded by some classy preliminaries.

Madison and Bauersock are fighting under the same conditions that governed their last bout. They are to make 150 pounds ringside, the winner to take 60 and the loser 40 per cent of the fighters' cut. In this last respect the men have fared extraordinarily well, for they are to fight for 75 per cent of the gross gate. With advanced prices that will be charged for the event, it is possible to get about $1,400 dollars through the ticket window, which would make the purse in the neighborhood of $1,000. Everything points to a bumper house, so the men are doing quite as well as though they were fighting in the city.

If the men are to meet again it is a good move to stage the affair at the army post, for there are many soldiers who will attend there, but who will not come to town to see the mill. Also, the men have fought three times in Honolulu, within a short time, and Dick Sullivan is quite right in passing them up on this occasion. The public likes a change and even though Madison and "Sox" have put up two rattling good mills, local fans would hardly enthuse over the fourth meeting.

CUBANS COMING TO PLAY IN MAJORS

Baseball is branching rapidly and all nations are becoming stars of the diamond. Next season will see Jacinto Calvo with the Washington Nationals and Thomas Calvo with the Boston Red Sox. Both are Cubans, having played with the Almendares team in Havana for the past few years. Jacinto is an outfielder and against the Athletics recently compiled a batting average of .410 against Plank, Combs and Bender. Thomas is a third baseman and shortstop.

ABE ATTELL QUILTS BOXING TO MANAGE

NEW YORK—Years of hard training, boxing all the time and running on the road, use up your energy. I guess a man has about so much action in him, and when he burns up that he begins to grow slow.

Abe Attell spoke this grave philosophical truth as he explained that there was no "come back" in the ring for him.

From this point on Abe will let somebody else do the fighting. He has a "stable" of one already. A few nights ago he saw "Special Delivery" Hirsch box in a preliminary at the garden.

"I liked the way the boy handled himself," Abe explained, "so I went to the dressing room afterward and saw him."

"Would you like to have me manage you?" I asked. He would—sure. So I took the boy and I'm going to teach him a lot and make him a top notcher."

M'LOUGHLIN LEADS COUNTRY'S UPPER TEN ON THE COURTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Maurice E. McLaughlin of San Francisco heads the list of the "first ten" among the tennis players of the country, according to the report made public today by the ranking committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. With T. C. Bundy of Los Angeles, McLaughlin also heads the list in the doubles class.

The rankings are based on the standing of the players for the season of 1912, and on the judgment of the committee as to the relative merits of the individual men. For ranking in the singles class, each player must have participated in at least three tournaments, and in the doubles each pair must have taken part in two tournaments. At the request of the Pacific Coast Tennis Association, none of the players of that division is ranked except those who played in eastern tournaments this year.

Others in the "first ten," in numerical order, are R. Norris Williams; Wallace F. Johnson, Wynne-wood, Pa.; J. M. Clothier, Wynne-wood, Pa.; Nathaniel W. Niles, Boston; Thomas C. Bundy, Los Angeles; Karl H. Behr, New York; Raymond D. Little, New York; George P. Gardner, Cambridge, Mass.; and Gustav F. Touchard, New York.

FOLGER-RUTT TEAM WINNERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Fogler and Rutt, the German-American team, won the six day bicycle race at Madison Square garden which ended tonight. Walter Rutt took the honors for his team in the mile sprint which ended the race.

The Bedell-Mitten team, represented in the sprint by Bedell, was second, and the Clarke-Hill team, with Jackie Clarke doing the riding, finished third.

The Root-Hear team, the Drobach-Collins team and the Grenda-Pye team finished fourth, fifth and sixth, respectively. Root, Drobach and Grenda rode for their teams in the sprint. The time for the mile was 2:09 3-5.

The sprint was necessary to decide the tie between these six teams, which, when the time for the end of the riding appeared, were bunched in the lead. The track was cleared at 9:57 and the final scene of the race staged.

Immediately afterward a second sprint was started between the Kramer-Moran and Perchicot-Egg teams, which were tied a lap behind the leaders when the long grind ended. Frank Kramer won this sprint, which gave his team seventh place, and the Perchicot-Egg team was relegated to eighth position. The time was 3:45 1-5. Perchicot rode for his team in the sprint.

These teams all finished within the money, the prizes ranging from $100 for first and $1000 for second down to $550 each for winners of seventh and eighth places. Walker and Wells brought up the rear of the nine teams, which completed the long race. The six leaders had gone 2661 miles 5 laps, with the trailing pair a lap behind and Walker and Wells an additional lap in the rear.

The record for a six day race is 2777 miles 1 lap, made by McFarland and Moran in 1908.

SOME USEFUL THUMB RULES FOR CADDIES

An English golf club has a set of twelve cardinal rules for its caddies, and, marvel of marvels, they are obeyed to the letter. What a boon would be if the lads who carry on the local courses would learn and obey even half of the following:

1. Ask your player if he likes a high or a low tee.
2. Make the tee, hand your player the club he asks for, stand facing him as he plays, and keep still.
3. Mark the ball, and when both layers have driven off, walk straight to it.
4. Hand out the club asked for, standing facing your player, and keep quiet.
5. Follow these rules until the ball is on the green, then hand your player his putter.
6. Each caddy in turn must go martly to the flag when the green is reached.
7. When the players have holed out hand to each his ball.
8. Don't move or speak when any layer is in the act of striking.
9. Keep close to your player and be ready to hand him the club he requires.
- 10.—Replace all turf displaced without being told.
11. Take an interest in the game and try to carry the score in your head.
12. Caddies must keep within their enclosure when they are not out carrying.

THREE FINGERED BROWN TRAINING A ROCKEFELLER TO PITCH FOR PRINCETON

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Fowler McCormick, fifteen years old, son of H. F. McCormick and grandson of John D. Rockefeller, began a course in baseball pitching recently under the tutelage of Mordcai Brown, former star twirler of the Chicago National league club. The boy, who will be one of the world's wealthiest men, is being trained for slat work at Princeton University. His father is a Princeton graduate, and it is his ambition to watch his son some day strike out the batsmen of Yale and Harvard. Brown will give him two lessons each week, and next spring Fowler will try for a pitching berth on his "prep" school team.

HOW'S THIS CABINET OF SPORTING LIGHTS?

President-elect Wilson could get thor of "How to Turn One Shoe into Opulence."

Secretary of the Interior—John L. Sullivan. No one ever put a severer strain on the interior department than the former champion of the world. He ought to know what it can stand.

Attorney-General—Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Americans in the summer and lawyer in the winter. Secretary of Agriculture—Frank Laker, of Trappe, Md., propeller of home runs in the summer months, particularly around the world's series times, and farmer in winter.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Dave Fultz, newly elected president of the Baseball Players' Protective Association.

Postmaster-General—Rube Waddell, whose winter demands for advance money, sent by mail, put the Postoffice Department on a paying basis for the first time in its history. Awarding this portfolio to Mr. Waddell would be only a proper expression of gratitude.

BOMBARDIER WILL GET CHANCE AT TITLE

Winner of the McCarty-Palzer Mill to Fight British Champion for the World's Title—Palzer Has Many Followers

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—The winner of the Al Palzer-Luther McCarty fight on New Year day will be declared champion of the world, but Tom McCarty, the Los Angeles promoter, is planning to ask the winner to fight Bombardier Wells, the English heavy weight, so that he will have a clear claim to the title. Coast fans believe the winner will accept. Al Palzer knocked out Wells in a recent fight, but Wells had the best of it for a number of rounds, Palzer gamely standing by his guns.

"The man who wins the decision at Vernon New Year's day will be the world's heavy weight king," says McCarty, in a Los Angeles interview. "There will not be a single man to question his title, however, in case he meets Wells. I do not credit the others' claims. If the winner of the coming fight meets Wells it will be the first time in years that an American and an Englishman have clashed for the world's heavy weight title."

McCarty made his mark in the hall of fame when he stopped Jim Flynn in Los Angeles recently but still that showing has failed to convince the admirers of Palzer that the giant from Missouri is the master of the farmer from Iowa. Palzer must be seriously considered as a real heavy weight contender until somebody finishes him decisively.

Tom O'Rourke, one of the few old time managers left in the game, has the youngest under his wing and this in itself is a great boost. O'Rourke never was known to let up on a dead one. He had Walcott, Dixon, Sharkey, and a score of others nearly as great. He bowed out of the game a few years ago, but he suddenly came back again, apparently revived by the force of his opponent's blows.

Palzer a Second Tom Sharkey.

It will take a game man—a very game one—to down Palzer. Whether or not McCarty possesses this very necessary asset is not known as yet. He never has been up against a man who could give him what might be termed a rub. Frank Moran beat the big fellow to a decision three years ago, but he was only a bit starting out then, so the ring dopesters will have to throw that one out.

"Palzer is the nearest approach to Tom Sharkey that I ever have seen," said a veteran of the ring who has attended all the big ring affairs for the last 25 years. "He reminds one of a bulldog. He can hit and surely can take it. The harder he is stung, the faster he comes back. He is open and easy to hit, but the man who delivers the punch must be careful, for the big fellow is always liable to respond with a knockout wallop. He is a very dangerous bird."

Gameness counts just as much in the prize ring as it does in any other line of sports. The ball players, the football player, the tennis player, the jockey, the hurdler, the high jumper, and in fact the whole line of them must have the spirit or else they never will succeed.

CHAMPION PRAYS ALL THROUGH A HARD-WON BATTLE

LONDON—Johnny Summers, welter weight boxing champion of England who retained the Lord Lonsdale belt, symbolizing that distinction by defeating Syd Barus at the National Sporting club, is a devout Catholic.

Just before the fight began Summers knelt in his corner, bowed his head reverently and made the sign of the cross. Then he sprang to his feet like a panther, dashed at his man and with both hands did his best to hammer the sense out of him.

At the end of each round Summers reached down his left sock and touched a rosary that was wound around his ankle, and at the call of time in each round he dropped on one knee and passed his right hand across his face.

When the fight was over and he had conquered on points after 20 fierce rounds, Summers again dropped to his knee in his honor.

MASER LEADS ALL INTER-ISLAND ROLLERS

Final averages for the Inter-Island Bowling League series, figured by Secretary A. T. Wisdom of the league, show that Maser of Kauai wins the prize for high average, while Kuhlmann of the same team topped the high score prize with 256. The race for most double centuries was very close, Wolters bringing home the bacon by rolling two hundred eight times, Maser had seven, while the next nearest was Chillingworth of Maui, with five.

WHITNEY IS TO LEAD POLOISTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Harry Payne Whitney again has demonstrated that he is a good sportsman. Reports have been floating around and stories printed that the captain of the international polo team had decided to retire from the field on international engagements; but it is another case of the old war horse smelling powder, and then again Whitney saw he was needed so in spite of his personal wishes he has jumped in again and will captain the American team in the coming international matches at Hurlingham.

In a large measure the same program will be followed as regards the selection of the American defending team. Whitney will be in sole charge, and the various polo association committees will aid him in every way possible.

The pony situation seems particularly bright at Meadowbrook. All the players whose ability warrant it will be invited to take part in the preliminary practice matches at Georgian court, the estate of George J. Gould at Lakewood.

While of course it is too early to name any players, it is a safe bet that "Monte" and Larry Waterbury, Devereaux Milburn, Malcolm Stevenson, "Goshall" Keene, R. L. Agassiz and Joshua Crane will be among those who will try for the team.

Little is known about the personnel of the English team that is coming over, but the fact that Walter Buckmaster, one of the finest players in England, will be its captain is sufficient guarantee that it will be the strongest combination the Britishers can get together.

Eight or ten of the foremost players in England, from among whom the team and substitutes will be selected, have been playing in the south of France and will continue practice throughout the winter, probably in Egypt, which has a warm climate and where polo is extremely popular with the English and French sportsmen who winter there.

FOOTBALL SOCCER COMBINATION CHRISTMAS

Schofield Barracks Eleven Will Have Another Crack at the Original Town Team—Maile-High Soccer Game

Out on Moiliili Field tomorrow afternoon the Original Town Team and the Schofield Barracks eleven will get together for their second game this season, and every indication points to both a good game and a large crowd. The attendance at the last game was rather disappointing, but the fans have found out that these two teams are offering something new in the way of good football which follows closely after the mainland styles, and it is thought that a much larger number will take advantage of the opportunity to see them in action.

According to latest reports from the barracks, the soldiers will go into the game with practically a new line-up. New men have been substituted, and they have endeavored to cover up the weak points which showed out strongly in the last game, and with this additional strength, they are coming into Honolulu with every confidence of taking the Townies into camp. On the other hand, there have also been some changes in the make-up of the Townie eleven, although that team will go into the field with practically the same line-up as they used in the last game. The team has been turning out for practice every night, and the men feel that they can repeat the trick of the last game a week ago last Saturday.

Another fast soccer game will form the curtain-raiser for the football game, and this time the Mailes will try their skill against the champion High School aggregation. This game will start at a quarter past two o'clock, and will probably finish by three o'clock, making the main event of the afternoon starting at three-fifteen. The price of admission will remain the same, thirty cents for general admission and fifty cents for automobiles, plus the regular admission fee. Both football teams have undergone considerable expense in order to play these games, and the respective managements are hoping for a big gate.

Following is the line-up of the Town Team. The Schofield line-up has not yet been completed: Lucas, c.; Kamakua, l.g.; Moore, r.g.; Billiaman, r.t.; Hamanuku, l.t.; Bob Chillingworth, l.e.; Thayer, r.e.; A. L. Hall, q.b.; Kanoe, l.b.; D. Desha, r.b.; F. M. Friesell (Capt.), l.h.b. Substitutes: Hughes, Sharwood, "Buster" Carter, Henry Chillingworth (manager), Lota and Bill Benha.

TO RUTH (Our Little Champion Swimmer)

When Ruth goes in to swim
There's quite a big commotion
Upon the coral reef
That blossoms in the ocean.

For wondrous is the sight;
—Hawaii's lovely daughter
Goes like a flash of light
Past the fishes in the water!

The mermaids all turn green
With envy when she's swimming,
For they in that regard
Are just like other women!

The nymphs are all in tears,
Their hair they're almost tearing,
Whilst Neptune, awful sad,
Of his daughters is despairing.

O, the mermaids are just mad,
Saying, "We'll drown her when we catch her,
But their efforts are in vain,
For the devil a one can match her!"
